THE KING OF INNISHKEA.

He Dwells on an Irish Island and Rules a Mayo Tribe.

About 16 miles from Dugort, in Achill island, out to sea, looking like a thin line of sand in the waves of the Atlantic, is the island of Innishkea. One fine morning our party started to visit it in a trusty hooker. As the hooker came in sight of the shore great excitement was visible among the islanders, and it was very hard to realize that we were still but 36 hours' journey from London.

The inhabitants turned out en masse. The women and children in their scanty garments of red flannel crouched outside their cabins, while numbers of the men ran down to the beach and put out in their corracles on chance of rowing us to land. It was a strange scene and curiously like a picture plate in a boy's book of adventures. We knew there was a king of Innishkea, and soon a tall, bronze faced man was pointed out to us as his majesty. On landing all the party were introduced and conducted by him to the palace, where the queen dowager, with her daughter, bade us welcome in true Irish fashion.

The old lady was in her picturesque native costume—red dress and plaid shawl over her head. The princess, however, had evidently on first sight of the hooker arrayed herself in modern fashion to do us honor, and we were amused on penetrating into the reception room to find advertisements from shops in Buckingham Palace road and St. Paul's churchyard hung up to embellish the wall, though only by a favored few could they be read.

The island was destitute of any school or means of instruction for the children, a very small proportion either understood or spoke English, and there was neither watch nor clock among the people, who had a happy go lucky idea of time and troubled themselves little as to Greenwich regulations.

There were no church bells to ring, no trains to catch, no office hours requiring punctuality, so when the sun was high in the heavens they would get through their not arduous farming duties, and when he sank in the great waste of waters they could sleep. The king's word settled all disputes. It was a hereditary monarchy, and his people, so far as he was concerned, were untaxed. Happy those states, thought some of the visitors, where royalty could be maintained with so little grandeur! However, I am in honesty bound to add we found King Philip had other means of filling his coffers besides levying taxes on his faithful subjects and learned the art of making good his opportunity whenever the Saxon stranger ventured to land on his shore. But Innishkea has an interest altogether apart from its situation, surrounded as it is by lovely views of mountain cliff and rocky headland. On this spot, hundreds of years ago, early Christian missionaries landed, and on top of a shelly mount, half a mile from the beach, are Christian remains of great antiquity. West of the island there stand also the ruins of a church said to have been built by the successors of St. Columba.—Leisure Hours.

Jenny Lind.

Jenny Lind must have been the most simple, unpretending prima donna that ever lived. When she first came to England she was bound to sing only at the Royal Italian Opera House, and when commanded to sing at the queen's concert she was obliged to refuse. Very sorry to be compelled to notify this, she ordered her carriage and drove straight to Buckingham palace. She handed her card to an official, who, not unnaturally, declined to take it in. A higher authority happened to pass and took it upon himself to present it. As soon as her majesty saw it she said, "Admit her, by all means." Jenny Lind appeared and said simply that she was so very sorry to be unable to sing at her majesty's concert that she thought it better to call herself and explain. The queen was charmed with her natural manner, gave her a cordial reception and promised to be her friend.—Today.

Mr R. E Bartlett, Chelmsford, writes: "I can beat the achievement of Charles Edward, who, by spelling box 'botsk,' made more mistakes than the letters admit of. I have in my possession a letter addressed many years ago to my father, in which 19 mistakes are made in a single word of five letters. The word is, or was meant to be, usage; the spelling is yowzitch. There are thus five sins of omission and eight of commission; total, 13."—London News.

Fair and beautiful—the woman who keeps at a distance the complexion beautifiers, paints and powders, which soon ruin the face. A healthy glow to the skin, a face without wrinkles, and sparkling eyes, will be yours if you keep the system and the special internal organs in good condition. The young girl, or woman, often grows pale, wrinkled and thin, eats little, everything wearies her, she complains of herself as aching and sore and as sleeping poorly. Often she is troubled with backache, or a tender spine, with a bearing-down weight in the abdomen, or at periods she may be irregular, or suffer extreme pain from functional derangements.

Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his long and active experience, met many cases of this kind, for which he used a prescription which was found to cure such difficulties permanently in ninety-eight per cent. of all cases. Having proven so successful, Dr. Pierce put his "Favorite Prescription" on the market, and it is to-day sold more largely than any other medicine for the ills of woman.

For all functional derangements, displacements, ulceration, inflammation, and the catarrhal drain from the lining membranes of the special internal organs of women, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble, and corrects it.

MRS. CRIM.

Mrs. MARY CRIM, of Frankfort, Franklin Co., Ill., writes: "A few years ago I took cold, which resulted in female trouble, and affected my whole system. About a year ago, I took chills, had one or two a month; they were very weakening. Had pains in my sides, more frequently in left side; gradually grew worse until, finally, I had to take to bed. I had a bad cough and couldn't rest. I commenced taking your medicine, took it about four months, taking seven bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five of his "Golden Medical Discovery." My weight has increased and I feel better and stouter than I have for years."

MEN

Why waste time and money with doctors WHEN I WILL SEND FREE the prescription for a new and positive remedy for a prompt and lasting cure for LOST MANHOOD AND IMPOTENCY. I am not a doctor, but a lawyer, and obtained this wonderful formula while in Paris, France, from the most celebrated specialist in diseases of the genito-urinary organs the world ever knew. It made a new man of me and will do the same for you. For removing varicocele and STRENGTHING SMALL, WEAK ORGANS ITS EFFECTS IS TRULY MARVELOUS. Such a wonderful change will be made in from 15 to 25 days by its use that you will be astonished. EVERY MAN suffering from NERVOUS DEBILITY, or any other trouble caused by youthful errors or excesses of any kind, should send at once for the prescription. Enclose 10 cents in stamps. NEVADA STATE JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1895.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

The United States Senate as it now stands consists of forty-four Democrats, thirty-six Republicans and five Populists, including Senators Stewart and Jones. There are three vacancies, one from Montana, one from Washington and one from Wyoming. Two of these vacancies were filled last week by the Legislatures of Montana and Wyoming and the third will doubtless be filled by the Washington Legislature which is now in session and balloting daily for a Senator. The terms of thirty two Senators will expire March 4th next. Of these fifteen are Democrats and seventeen Republicans The places of the outgoing Senators will be filled by ten Democrats, twenty Republicans and two Populists. The three vacancies will also be filled by Republicans. The next Senate will therefore stand thirty-nine Democrats, forty two Republicans and seven Populists, including the Nevada Senators. Two of the Populists will be from North Carolina. If the present Senate with a Democratic majority cannot pass a financial measure it is not probable that the next Senate, in which no party will have a majority, can do so unless the Republicans and Democrats form a third party, as they did on the repeal of the Bullion Purchase Act, and pass a measure that will be satisfactory to Wall street

It would be a pleasant surprise to the country if the Republican and Democratic Senators, who claim to be in favor of monetary reform, should unite with the Populists and pass a bill that will be as satisfactory to the people as the Repeal bill was to the Gold Trust. Opportunity should be given President Cleveland to assume the responsibility of vetoing a bill that would relieve the present financial stringency and put the country on the road to prosperity.

THE UNION PACIFIC SCHEME

The papers in the suit brought to foreclose the first mortgage bonds on the Union Pacific are supposed to have been prepared in the office of Winslow A. Pierce of New York, at the instance of the Trustees. The petition alleges that the indebtedness of the Union Pacific. July 1, 1895, will be nearly seventy millions of dollars, and as the earnings of the road are constantly decreasing, that the first mortgage be foreclosed in the interest of the holders of the first mortgage bonds As the main line of the Union Pacific is not expected to sell for the amount of the first mortgage bonds all the other indebtedness, including the $33,584,000 due the Government, will be canceled. Senator Thurston, who has just been elected by the Republican Legislature of Nebraska, and who has been attorney for the Union Pacific for years, is retained by the bondholders until the details of the foreclosure suit are completed.

It is surmised by many persons at Omaha that the scheme to foreclose the first mortgage was conceived at the Union Pacific headquarters in that city and was devised to force Congress, through fear that the Government will lose its entire interest in the road, to agree to an extension of the indebtedness on terms favorable to the first mortgage bondholders, as it is proposed by the Reilly Funding bill

A COMPETING RAILROAD.

San Francisco is arousing from its lethargy. It elected Adolph Sutro Mayor of the city, appointed a committee to reform abuses and expose corruption in the police, elections and other departments. It convicted two "stuffers" and it is now getting money subscribed to build another railroad from the city to Kern county and eventually to Mohave to connect with the Atlantic & Pacific Many of San Francisco's most prominent business men are taking an active part in awakening the citizens generally to action. Its ablest lawyers and most influential business men are demanding reform and its millionaires are subscribing to the capital stock of the proposed road. Claus Spreckles has taken $700,000 of the stock—half a million for himself and one hundred thousand dollars each for his sons. He says the committee appointed to secure subscriptions, of which he is chairman, will raise four millions instead of the proposed million and a half, and that the road, instead of stopping at Stockton, will be built to Mohave to connect with the Atlantic & Pacific.

It is time San Francisco was arousing if it hopes to maintain its position as metropolis of the Pacific Coast. Portland on the north and Los Angeles on the south have been reaching out for trade and have secured much of that which naturally belongs and formally went to San Francisco.

A GOLD MESSAGE.

The President has sent a special message to Congress on the currency question. He admits that gold is being shipped out of the country or hoarded and that the Treasury is being depleted to supply the demand for gold for these purposes. He considers it repudiation to pay any of the obligations of the Government with silver, greenbacks or anything but gold. He favors a gold basis and to maintain it proposes to withdraw greenbacks, which are non-interest bearing, from circulation and issue interest bearing bonds for gold to replenish the Treasury. He does not take into consideration the fact that bonds and greenbacks are payable in coin, and that it was not nominated in the bonds that they should be redeemed in gold. In 1869, when Sherman introduced and passed a bill to strengthen the public credit, he stipulated that the bonds, which were redeemable in currency, should be paid in coin No distinction was then made between gold and silver. Either was satisfactory because both were a legal tender and their coinage free at the mints. Now, as for a number of years past, only gold will satisfy the bondholders and the Government evinces no disposition to displease them by paying silver dollars for notes, which are payable in gold or silver, at the option of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Some members of the Publishing Company, whose stock in trade consists mainly of personalities and blackguardism, whine like whipped curs when referred to personally. They seem to think they have unlimited license to villify and misrepresent people, but when truths regarding them are even hinted at they commence whimpering. They should remember the adage and act upon it, "That those who live in glass houses should not throw stones."

Senator Allen, of Nebraska, has introduced a resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to exercise his discretion in redeeming treasury notes and greenbacks in silver coin, when convinced that a systematic attempt is being made to deplete the gold reserve and for the issue of bonds. Senator Allen should use the word Compel instead of Authorize in his resolution. The Secretary, now has the option of paying silver, but he always uses it as the gold men direct

A SPECIAL MESSAGE.

The President Wants a New Currency Bill—His Only Cry is Gold' Gold!!

Washington, January 28.—The President to-day sent a message on the currency question to Congress of which the following is a synopsis:

To the Senate and House of Representatives —In my last annual message I commended to the serious consideration of Congress the condition of our national finances, and, in connection with the subject, endorsed a plan of currency legislation which at that time seemed to furnish protection against impending danger. This plan has not been approved by Congress. In the meantime the situation has so changed that it appears so threatening I deem it my duty to ask at the hands of the legislative branch of the Government such prompt and effective action as will restore confidence in our financial soundness and avert a business disaster and universal distress among our people. Whatever may be the merits of the plan outlined in my annual message as a remedy for ills existing and as a safeguard against a depletion of the gold reserve then in the Treasury, I am now convinced its reception by Congress and our present advanced stage of financial perplexity necessitate additional or different legislation.

The President urges the necessity of immediate legislation for the protection of the Treasury from further depletion of the gold reserve and requests nonpartisan consideration and action. The real trouble is lack of confidence of the Government's ability or disposition to pay its obligations in gold, caused by the impossibility of the Government to keep gold in the Treasury. The only way left open to the Government of procuring gold is by the issue and sale of bands. Our gold reserve has again struck such a stage of diminution as requires its speedy reinforcement to maintain the national credit and prosperity and to protect laborers as well as employes. There is no fear that the Government cannot pay current expenses with the sixty-three million dollar surplus now in the Treasury, but this amount is not in gold, therefore does not meet our difficulty.

I cannot see that the difference of opinion concerning the extent to which silver ought to be coined or used in our country should interfere with the counsels of those whose duty to rectify events now apparent in our financial situation. They have to consider the question of the national credit and the consequence that will follow from its collapse, whatever ideas may be insisted on as to silver or bimetallism proper. The solution of the question now pressing upon us only requires the recognition of gold as well as silver, and a concession of its importance, rightfully or wrongfully acquired, as the basis of national credit. The necessity in the honorable discharge of our obligations is payable in gold and a badge of solvency. I do not understand that the real friends of silver desire a condition that may follow inaction or neglect to appreciate the meaning of the present exigency if it should result in the entire banishment of gold from our financial and currency arrangement.

Besides the Treasury notes, which certainly should be paid in gold, amounting to nearly $500,000,000, there will fall due in 1904 $100,000,000, issued during the last year, for which we have received gold, and in $1907 nearly $600,000,000 four per cent bonds, issued in 1877. Shall the payment of those obligations in gold be repudiated? If they are to be paid in such a manner as the preservation of our own national honor and national solvency demands, we should not destroy or even imperil our ability to supply ourselves with gold for that purpose While I am not unfriendly to silver, and while I desire to see its recognition to such an extent as is consistent with financial safety and the preservation of national honor and credit, I am not willing to see gold entirely banished from our currency and finances.

To avert such consequences I believe that thorough and radical remedial legislation should be promptly passed. I therefore beg Congress to give the subject immediate attention. In my opinion the Secretary of the Treasury should be authorized to issue bonds of the Government for the purpose of procuring and maintaining a sufficient gold reserve for the redemption and the cancellation of the United States legal tender notes and Treasury notes issued for the purchase of silver under the law of July, 1890, we should be relieved from the humiliating process of issuing bonds to procure gold to be immediately and repeatedly drawn on these obligations for purposes not related to the benefit of our Government or our people. The principal and interest of these bonds should be payable on their face in gold, because they should be sold for gold or its representative and because there would now probably be difficulty in favorably disposing of bonds not containing this stipulation.

I suggest that bonds be used in denominations of $20 and $50 and their multiples and that they bear interest at a rate not exceeding 3 per cent. per annum.

I do not see why they need be payable for fifty years from their date. We of the present generation have large amounts to pay if we meet our obligations and long bonds are the most saleable. The Secretary of the Treasury might well be permitted at discretion to receive on the sale of bonds legal tender and Treasury notes to be retired and of course when they are thus retired and redeemed in gold they should be cancelled. These bonds under existing laws, could be deposited, by national banks as security for circulation, and such banks should be allowed to issue circulation up to their face value. These or any other bonds so deposited, except bonds outstanding bearing only 2 per cent. interest, and which sell in the market at less than par. National banks should not be allowed to take out circulating notes of less denominations than $10, and when such as are now outstanding reach the Treasury except for redemption and retirement and they should be cancelled, and notes of $10 and upwards be issued in their stead. Silver certificates of denominations of $10 and upwards should be replaced by certificates of denominations under $10. As a constant means for the maintenance of a responsible supply of gold in the Treasury, our duties on imports should be paid in gold, allowing all other dues of the Government to be paid in any other form of money.

I believe all the provisions I have suggested should be embodied in our laws, if we are to enjoy a complete reinstatement of a sound financial condition

CONVICT LABOR.

Difficulty in Finding Employment for It at the State Prison.

The report of the Warden of the Nevada State Prison contains the following: "Owing to the closing of the shoe factory there has been difficulty in keeping the inmates employed. Upon consultation with the honorable Board of Prison Commissioners, it was decided to break up rock to be used for the repairs of the county and city roads. This was done, giving occupation to about one-half the inmates for a time, and the road from the main street of Carson to the Prison was thoroughly graded and macadamized by prison labor. Now even that means of employment has failed, as the county and city officials do not seem to wish to incur the expense of teams to haul the rock. I have given the matter of employment of this labor considerable attention, but am not able to recommend anything, unless machinery for a door and sash factory, which would entail a heavy outlay, with doubts of the result financially."

Accident on the N-C-O

An accident occurred yesterday on the N-C-O. at a place known as Cedar Flat, about fifteen miles from Reno, and nearly opposite Lemmon's ranch. Seven cars loaded with cattle were derailed, several of the cars being turned over on their sides and the cars had to be chopped open to let the cattle out. The engine remained on the track and was run to town with the passengers. No one was injured. The cattle were turned loose on the hills and will probably be driven to town. It is likely that the wreck will be cleared to-night and there will be no serious delay.

REGULAR SESSION RESUMED.

Report of Committee of the Whole adopted.

Legislative fund bill passed unanimously,

On motion of Allen of Eureka, Concurrent Resolution No. 4—the Anti-Reilly resolution—was taken up from the report of the Committee of the Whole and lost—15 to 13, two members absent, it requiring a constitutional majority of 16 votes to pass a bill or a concurrent resolution.

Recess till 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Comins' Senate Resolution No. 3, was taken up and read, and Allen of Eureka presented a substitute, containing in substance the Anti-Reilly bill resolution of the Silver party State platform, and moved its adoption. He asked that one of Bassett's (Old Pard) letters be read as pertinent to the question. The Clerk proceeded to read. Then the Speaker declared it out of order. Allen appealed and the decision of the Chair was sustained.

After some more discussion—Allen and Pitt in favor of and Denton and Gorman against—the substitute was put to a vote and lost, 11 to 6. The original resolution was then voted upon and received 14 votes in the affirmative, which was less than the constitutional majority and it was therefore declared lost.

Noel gave notice of motion to reconsider, as ten members were absent or did not vote.

Senate Resolution No. 1, in sympathy with the Hawaiian Government, was passed, receiving 20 votes, all in the affirmative.

A. C. R. No. 1, relative to calling a Constitutional Convention was taken up, but before any action was taken there was a call of the House, resulting in adjournment till 11 A. M.

INCIDENTALS.

The present Legislature is about up to the average of its latest predecessors judging by its general evolvement thus far, but it contains more inexperienced members than its predecessors. Some of the newest are the youngest and freshest, but they will drop on themselves, as it were, after a while. Some regular old-time howlers have already developed with good future prospects

Lieutenant-Governor Sadler does exceedingly well as presiding officer of the Senate, in fact he is rather better than some of his average predecessors. Secretary Maestretti is a most excellent selection, understanding his business well, reading speedily, etc. Lem Allen also makes an excellent Speaker of the Assembly.

Earnest work is being done in both Houses, the standing and special committees are getting promptly at work and all seem desirous of showing their constituents that they will attend promptly and properly to the public business for which they were elected. The session promises to be not only short but lively. Nobody has suggested tinkering with the Constitution in the shape of amendments as yet.

A lively little spat occurred this afternoon in the Assembly chamber after adjournment, between a railroad magnate and an eastern member in which criminations and recriminations passed and they almost came to blows. It was merely a tempest in a teapot and did no harm—merely an agreeable variety.

The thermometer was down to six below zero again last night and is liable to descend thither some more tonight Comstockers say that it has not got down to within a dozen degrees of zero thus far this winter. A. D.

THE SOUTH AFRICA MINES

The Gold Production for the Month of November, 1894.

The JOURNAL has received a copy of the Standard and Diggers News of November 17th, 1894. It is published at Johannesburg, South Africa Republic, and is the authorized Government gazette for the Wilswatersrand mines. It contains a tabulated statement of the gold production of the mines for the month of November, 1894. There are 48 mines with mills and six customs works. The total nubmer of stamps is 2,265, and the average number of days which they run during the month was 28.83. The total gold product for the month was 173 378 ounces and 13 pennyweights, the value of which was 597,590 pounds, English money. Of this £393,567 was from ores worked in the mills £30,867 from concentrates, £164,444 from tailings, and £9,912 from other sources. Estimating the pound sterling at $5, the product of the South African mines for the month of November was $2,987,950. If the product of November, 1894, was an average for the year it would show that the gold paoduct of the South African mines amounts to about $36,000,000 annually.

Married in San Francisco.

Jack Paige, for many years a popular agent for Wells, Fargo & Co., and Miss Mary Miller, one of Virginia's charming daughters, were married in San Francisco to-day. Mr. Paige and bride are very well known on the lode and have many friends here, all of whom wish them happiness. They will reside on Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco.—Chronicle.

Jack Paige is well known in Reno, having for many years run as Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger on the V. & T. He also has many friends here who will join his friends on the Comstock in wishing that the days of Jack and his bride may be long in the land and as bright as a May day morn and that their years may be full of happiness

THE REILLY FUNDING BILL.

It is a Vicious Measure and should be Defeated

EDITOR JOURNAL:—There is an impression prevalent among the people in this vicinity that a majority of the members of the present Legislature are inclined to handle the railroad question with extreme caution. We hope the people are mistaken, for now is the time for prompt action. The Reilly Funding bill is still pending in Congress, and Nevada will be injured more by its enactment than any other State. Under this Reilly bill the bonded debt of the Central Pacific will exceed $100,000 per mile and the patrons of the road will be taxed to pay interest on this ficticious valuation. In addition to this burden, it will legalize the theft of untold millions, which Messrs. Stanford, Huntington, Hopkins and Crocker have appropriated to their own benefit and use.

We hope the Nevada Legislature will enter a most vigorous protest against the Reilly, or any other funding bill, extending the time of payment of the Central Pacific debt due the Government.

The Silver Party declared in their platform for Government ownership of the subsidized roads. The people's party declared that "transportation being a means of exchange and a public necessity, the Government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people." The Nevada Legislators now have a propitious opportunity to show the people how they stand on the Reilly funding bill, and how they stand on the Government ownership and control of railroads. Will they embrace the opportunity?

THE CLIFF HOUSE.

A Fine Building to be Erected on the Old Place.

Adolph Sutro has decided that within the next four months a handsome building will replace the old Cliff House which was destroyed by fire on Christmas night. The new Cliff House will be a more handsome structure than the old, and will cost $50,000 or more to complete.

The new structure will cover an area of 92x100 feet and will be five stories in height, the upper floors to be surrounded by broad veranda. There will also be high observation towers, so that good views of the ocean can be obtained. The interior decorations will be elegant, no stone being left unturned to make the place a pleasure resort of the highest character. The new building will hang further out over the cliffs than the old one did, and to do this safely the foundation will be supported by heavy timbers imbedded in the rocks. Work on the building will commence at once.

Palpitation of the Heart and A General Break Down

The Good Effect of Hood's was Marked and Permanent.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I was taken down sick last December, and became very weak with nervous trouble, palpitation of the heart, and a general break down. I had a good physician, but lingered along, getting no better. I could sit up only about half a day, until the 18th of March, when I concluded I would give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. When I had used it a short time, I could get up and go all about the house all day. I have never enjoyed perfect health, but am now taking my fifth bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and know it has helped me wonderfully. I have used Hood's Pills, and think them excellent." MRS. A. E. BIG WARS CAUSED BY TRIFLES.

A Shaven Chin Cost France Three Million Lives—Modena's Bucket.

Many times it has happened that a great and costly war has been brought about by an incident trivial and even ridiculous.

Thus the war of the Spanish succession is said to have been caused through a glass of water. A lady, Mrs. Masham, was carrying a glass of water when she was obstructed by the Marquis de Torey. A slight scuffle ensued, and the water was spilled.

The marquis thereat took offense, and bad feeling ensued between the English and French courts, with the ultimate result that a war was declared.

The campaign cost France many severe battles—viz, Blenheim, 1704; Ramillies, 1707; Audenarde, 1708, and Malplaquet, 1709.

Quite as absurd in its origin was the war that took place during the commonwealth of Modena.

A soldier stole a bucket from a public well belonging to the state of Bologna. Although the value of the article did not exceed a quarter, its annexation was the signal for a fierce and prolonged war.

Henry, the king of Sardinia, assisted the Modenese to retain the bucket, and in one of the subsequent battles he was made a prisoner. The bucket is still exhibited in the tower of the cathedral of Modena.

A third instance of a war resulting from a trifling cause was that between Louis VII of France and Henry II of England.

The archbishop of Rouen decreed that no one should wear long hair upon their heads or chins. Louis submitted to the decree, whereupon his wife, Eleanor, rallied him upon his appearance. A quarrel ensued, which resulted in the dissolution of the marriage and Eleanor's marriage with Henry.

By this marriage the broad domains in Normandy formerly belonging to Louis passed into the possession of Henry. Louis, hotly incensed, made an attack on Normandy, and henceforth, for nearly 300 years, arose those bloody and devastating wars which cost France upward of 3,000,000 of lives.—London Answers

CARDINAL ANTONELLI.

The Great Papal Statesman as He Appeared to a Painter.

Rudolph Lehmann's visit to Rome in 1857 led to the painter's introduction to the great papal statesman, Cardinal Antonelli. He says:

Before me sat that execrated statesman, "the best hated man in Rome," in the most affable of moods. His bronzed and somewhat oriental features were certainly far from handsome, but they were full of character, energy, and, according to some, cruelty, with the large, dark, piercing eyes overshadowed by a heavy brow, the strong aquiline nose and the full sensual lips. He was in a talkative mood and spoke freely of the difficulties that beset his onerous ministry, of the position of the papacy becoming daily more threatened through the ever increasing energy of its wicked enemies, or what he called "the modern spirits." "But," he added, "history teaches us that it has always triumphed in the long run, and it will do so now." He also told me that the worldly interests of the brothers Antonelli had never been separated; that they possessed all their worldly goods in common, one brother being director of the Banca Romana; one, the Conte Gregorio, taking care of their vast possessions in the Pontine marshes, a third being syndaco of Rome and the youngest being employed in diplomatic missions by the secretary of state.

During a short rest he showed me, with evident pride, over his elegant apartment, furnished with all the latest modern comforts. But the crowning climax was the bedroom, combining with the solemnity and mystery of the abode of a prince of the church all the luxuries of the boudoir of a petite maitresse. The walls, the curtains, as well as the hangings round the spacious four poster, were of the heaviest crimson damask, looped up with enormous tassels.

The Nonprofessional Profile Head.

"I don know how many times I have seen people—I don't mean artists, but all sorts of people, including children—draw profile heads. It is common enough for anybody to draw them on a slate, a scrap of paper, anywhere," said Mr. Lehmann, "but I don't remember ever to have seen any of them draw a right handed profile—I mean one facing to the right. I suppose there is some very simple reason for this, but I am acquainted only with the fact."—New York Sun.

"You brought all that beautiful china back with you?" exclaimed the caller. "Didn't you break anything?"

"Nothing but the customs laws," replied the young lady, who had just returned from Europe.—Washington Star.
